

Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll Day

Presented by Councilmember Chris Cate

October 28, 2021

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. transformed the campuses for the San Diego Community College District (SDCCD) four colleges through the $1.55 billion Proposition S and N construction campaign; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. pioneered the Community College Baccalaureate Program in California; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. created opportunities for countless students to attend college through the tuition-free San Diego Promise program; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. has helped the San Diego region grow by leading SDCCD in providing quality education and relevant training for the future; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. was the 1st woman and the 1st African American Chancellor of SDCCD; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. has given more than 40 years of service to California's community colleges; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. served as the Chancellor of the SDCCD for over 17 years – the longest serving Chancellor, and a total of 28 years to SDCCD; AND

WHEREAS, Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll, Ph.D. is leaving a legacy of achievement, through her exemplary leadership and service; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Mayor and City Council, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim October 28th, 2021 to be “Chancellor, Emerita Constance M. Carroll Day” in the City of San Diego.